High Physical Support Villas in Bracken Ridge

Discover modern, purpose-built High Physical Support Villas in peaceful Bracken Ridge, just 17km from Brisbane City. These NDIS-approved internal villa complexes are designed for comfort, convenience, and independence, surrounded by green spaces, parks, and walking trails. Bracken Ridge offers a family-friendly atmosphere with great schools, sporting clubs, and public transport. The development includes 3 villas, with completion set for mid to late 2025—just 700m from local shops and 400m from McPherson Park.

Renders depicting interiors and exteriors (including amenity, public areas and elevations) are artistic representations only and the final product may differ from that illustrated.
